In the fall of 1866 Dr. Martin was killed by a Capt. It win's father and brother, who of to Middle Tennessee, near Pulled, we understand, awore vecresponses analyst Burnett, and although it was known to all that he acted purely n self-defense determined upon his death. Burnett, too, seemed to have a superstitions dread of being killed, as he was familiar with the strange fatality cider, and coon after the killing of Irwin left the State, telling every one that he was going to his wife who was at Marietta, Ga., but instead went first to Mississippi, where he was followed by the father and brother of Capt. These books are sought after with such tenacity that I can scarcely keep them to read myself, for any length of time. I will have extracts published from your annual report; they will have a beneficial effects on our emigration movement. Some left last week or your State, and next Monday two gentlemen are going to purchase a tract of land for a colony; a number propose starting in three weeks; they will call and see you. These may be termed the MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, skirmlishers, in advance of the spring sudge.—A good many motion pending emigration. People who have hitherto withstood the fucements to emigrate Westward are now auxious to go to Tennessee. I some times think there is a mysterious influence in the name. Persons whose wives and children are troubled with the Illa incident to our rigorous Northern winters, want a more genial clime. The winter has been severe for nearly a month. More than thirty-two hohes of snow have failen. If the Legislature strengthens your hands and co-operates with the emigration movements as suggested by you, they may look for a large influx of population next (this) year, a hardy, liberty-loving people. I have submitted your suggestion for a lecture to the friends of the movement. and they are highly elated. You will hear from them ere long. Gentlemen who have been to your State, and who have returned with glowing descriptions of the same, but who had nothing to sustain their declarations except their mers ipss dizit, tender you their thanks for your Hand Book and Report; it strengthens their declarations and makes their amertions have the weight that properly belongs to them.
